Organizational culture is a significant challenge for many agencies. A positive, healthy culture is what separates a good organization from a great one. So, what exactly is culture and how can leaders build one that's great? This workshop will answer these questions and more. Participants will learn how to intentionally foster a positive leadership culture that galvanizes commitment and achieves organizational goals.

This TWO DAY interactive workshop will teach participants:

- The importance of organizational values in creating a strong leadership culture
- How to clarify and communicate a purpose that resonates with others
- The key principles of self-leadership and servant leadership
- How to enhance morale and inspire higher performance
- Ways to increase employee engagement and improve retention
- The impact of mentoring and staff development in creating a successive leadership culture
