GUARDIAN LEADERSHIP Developing a Culture of Leadership Excellence Workshop is intended for participants who want to learn how to intentionally foster a positive culture through role modeling, creating shared values, and by inspiring and empowering their employees to galvanize commitment and achieve organizational goals.

This TWO-DAY interactive workshop will explore the value of:

- Cultivating a climate conducive to leadership growth and development
- Clarifying and communicating a purpose that resonates with others
- Defining and articulating a vision for your team and organization
- Creating shared values to galvanize commitment
- Achieving success in terms of a team
- Building a safe environment for taking risks and learning from failure
- Developing a successive leadership culture that lasts for generations
